Keefield Close

Residential care home

Welcome

We work to put the things in place that all add up to living well.

Our team is dedicated to providing excellent support. We promote and encourage independence and choice through an enabling environment, and use our active support model to monitor outcomes.

We are committed to creating a caring community that promotes inclusion and wellbeing for people with disabilities. We combine enabling support with a vibrant home life, and maximise opportunities for residents to enjoy a full and independent life.

Yours sincerely

Jane

Livability Keefield Close

Livability Keefield Close, on the outskirts of Harlow, Essex, provides person-centred, responsive, residential care for ten adults with profound physical and intellectual disabilities.

We provide care for a wide range of needs including spastic quadriplegia and Down's syndrome.

The home is spread over two spacious, adjoining and well-equipped bungalows. There is a lovely sensory garden at the back, and a separate building with facilities such as a sensory room. Our accessible and welcoming environment provides modern facilities with 24/7 support.
